Re: United States v. Turkiye Halk Bankasi, A.S., a/k/a "Halkbank," No. S6 Cr. 867
(RMB)

Dear Judge Berman:

I am a partner of King & Spalding LLP and an attorney admitted to practice in this district. The U.S. Attorney's office has informed me that the Court has issued a summons in United States v. Turkiye Halk Bankasi, A.S., a/k/a "Halkbank," No. S6 Cr. 867 (RMB), for an initial appearance on October 22, 2019 at 9:15 a.m. Neither I nor my firm are authorized to accept service on behalf of Halkbank and are not authorized to make an appearance in this case.

The U.S. Attorney's office transmitted a copy of the summons to me by email on Wednesday October 16. Although the summons claims that I am "legally authorized to receive service of process" on behalf of defendant Halkbank, this is incorrect. Although King & Spalding has represented Halkbank in connection with the Department of Justice's prior investigation regarding Halkbank, at no point has King & Spalding been authorized to accept service of a summons or other legal process on behalf of Halkbank, and we have so informed the U.S. Attorney's office. Indeed, although the summons had already been executed with my name filled in as the representative authorized to accept service, when the Assistant U.S. Attorney sent it to me, he asked me to "confirm if you will accept service on behalf of your client or, if not, to whom we should send it to accept service." I informed the U.S. Attorney's Office during our conversation on Wednesday that I was not authorized to accept service.
